OFFICE OF DOMESTIC SEWING MACHINE CO..)

For the past six months, or since last Nevember when the stringency in money matters caused our home office to suspend payment for a short time, the report has been industriously circulated throughout the city "by those who expect to profit thereby," that we had falled, and was about to discontinue our office here, leaving the eight hundred machines of our manufacture in this city to take care of themselves, and the owners thereof not to be able to get them repaired, or to obtain parts

&c. Until now we have taken no notice of the calumny, and would not, but that one or two persons owning our machines thinking by our silence these reports might be true, have been induced to consider the matter of exchanging for other makes, because they thought we could not or would not be able to take care of their machines. Now we can state that our financial condition allows us to do what no other

THE PETERSBURG TROUBLES - HOW THE NEWS WAS RECEIVED HERE.—No little excitement was created in the city yesterday by the announcement (posted on the Dispatch bulletin-board) that ten or twelve of the Conservative judges of election in Petersburg had been arrested by United States Deputy Marshals O'Donohue and Caldwell, charged with intimidating negro voters at the recent municipal election in that city.

The United States District Attorney, now in this city, was telegraphed to to know if bail could be granted for their appearance before Commissioner Pleasants this morning, He replied that he saw no objection to such a course. They will, therefore, be examined this morning on the charges preferred against them. James Neeson, Esq, has been employed to defend them, and his clients were in the city last night in consultation with Tanner, of this city, who was in the car, and one of the first to discover the accident, with great presence of mind and promptness gave the bell-cord a steady pull, the engineer whistled down brakes, and in a moment more the train came to a stand-still; but that moment will be ever remembered by all who were on board.

Upon examining the bridge and the car, it was found that the wheels of the front truck had not only run off the track, but two of the wheels were upon the very edge of the bridge, and one revolution more and the coach would probably have been thrown into the swollen and muddy river below. Several of the cross-ties were cut in two. It was found impossible to put the car back upon the track without considerable delay, and so another coach was gotten and the train came on to yesterday morning. > The Ice Question. [For the Dispatch.]

Thank gracious the present "heated erm" has turned the attention of your valuable paper on the "ice extortion," as practiced now in this city. That there is no citations, original compositions, and singing. reason in the enormous price charged can the waste no greater, and labor cheaper than last year; and the sole excuse our ice-dealers ble advance in the extreme North of one dollar and fifty cents per ton of two thousand In order to counterbalance this advance

RICHMOND, June 11, 1874. Messrs. Editors,-It is human nature to pain. Some of your correspondents seem to have been considerably victimized by "cats"

Now, although not in the honorable category of unsought spinsters, the undersigned nurled at our feline inmates. A caterwauling concert is not delightful certainly-never only periodical. But what shall be said of the atrocious eve sore of dogs. Night after night, and all night? Is there no way of putting a stop to that? We do not expect much "compunctious visitings" from the curs themselves; but we really think their owners are almost as destitute of conscience to harbor such intolerable nuisances for the sore disturbance and plague of their neighbors. A hot night, with "greyhound, mongrel, puppy, whelp, and curs of low degree," howling and barking all around! The man deserves credit cumstances, is, "yea, yea; nay, nay"!

[For the Dispatch] OPERAS FOR THE "LEE MEMORIAL FUND."-These operas which have recently been given by some of our best amateurs were not got ten up, as some suppose, for the new Episcopal church in Lexington, though General Lee was a vestryman in the church, and it is understood that the edifice will be to some extent in memory of that great man. The Rev. S. Pendleton, rector of the church, has written to a friend in this city to say that the ever highly he may appreciate the good wishes of all the triends of General Lee, he recting release of the two deeds of trust in could not accept funds which are raised by performances which are disallowed by the canons of the Episcopal Church.
